

Refocusing District and General Practice Nursing Roles in Integrated Adult Community Nursing Teams: New Approaches to Education

Thursday 1 November 2018
BT Murrayfield, Edinburgh

09.15 - 10.00

Registration
Coffee & Exhibitors

Thistle Suite 2

Thistle Suite 1

Morning Plenary Session - Chair: Karen Wilson, Director of Nursing, Midwifery & Allied Health Professions, NHS Education for Scotland

10.00 - 10.10

Welcome

Karen Wilson, Director of Nursing, Midwifery & Allied Health Professions,
NHS Education for Scotland

10.10 - 10.40

Transforming Roles in Integrated Adult Community Nursing Teams

Maria McIlgorm, Professional Advisor, Chief Nursing Officer's Directorate and Jennifer Wilson, Professional Nurse Advisor, Primary Care Division, Scottish Government

10.40 - 11.00

New Educational Approaches and Opportunities

Jane Harris, Head of Programme, NHS Education for Scotland

11.00 - 11.10

New NMC Standards: How do they Support Transformation?

Lesley Whyte, Associate Nurse Director, NHS Education for Scotland

11.10 - 11.35

A Vision for Community Nursing within an Integrated Health and Social Care Landscape

Professor Fiona McQueen, Chief Nursing Officer, Scottish Government

11.35 - 12.25

Concurrent Session 1

Various Rooms

(Tea/coffee will be served in your session)

1. Developing a Person-Centered Culture, Caroline Dickson, Senior Lecturer in Community Nursing, Queen Margaret University
2. Working Together to Drive Quality Improvements, Emily Brown, Specialist
Lead, NHS Education for Scotland
3. Innovative Workforce Development - A Showcase of Practitioner Led Initiatives, Speakers from NHS Boards
4. Clinical Supervision - What, Why and How?, Anne Moffat and Suzanne Lake,
Practice Educators, NHS Education for Scotland
5. Neighbourhood Care: Testing a New Model of Care in the Community,
Speakers from Healthcare Improvement Scotland and NHS Borders

12.25 - 13.25	Lunch, Posters & Exhibitors	Thistle Suite 2
	Afternoon Plenary Session - Chair: Karen Wilson, Director of Nursing, Midwifery & Allied Health Professions, NHS Education for Scotland
13.25 - 14.05	Workforce Learning and Development: Exploring Current and Future Potential Facilitated Table Top Discussions
14.05 - 14.50	Concurrent Session 2 Repeat of morning session	Various Rooms
14.50 - 15.15	You as a Collaborative Leader Graham Paxton, Principal Educator, NHS Education for Scotland	Thistle Suite 1
15.15 - 15.30	Closing Remarks & Next Steps Karen Wilson, Director of Nursing, Midwifery & Allied Health Professions, NHS Education for Scotland	