

NES 2022 Hybrid Staff Conference

Tuesday 6 September - Online and at Perth Concert Hall

PROGRAMME

Aims of the day:

- Reconnect with colleagues from across NES
- Share approaches to wellbeing and resilience
- Pause and reflect on the work practices that have arisen since the pandemic
- Reflect and celebrate NES's achievements over the past 20 years and consider how this informs our future and how we continue to meet the needs of our service users in the future

09:45 Registration including tea, coffee, networking and stands celebrating 20 years of NES

10:15 Welcome and Setting the Scene Karen Reid, Chief Executive, NHS Education for Scotland

10:20 Ice-Breaker

10:40 Wellbeing at Work - can it really work? Dr Emma Hepburn, Clinical Psychologist / Project Lead, Staff Wellbeing Programme, NHS Grampian (PsychologyMum)

11:40 Breakout Sessions - run both online and in person. Attendees will go to all sessions.

1. Digital Wellbeing Mind over Tech

12:10 Comfort Break

12:25 2. Talking with the TEL Team: transformative journey and lived experiences Technology Enhanced Learning Team

3. Hybrid Working: where are we now and where are we going? Organisational & Leadership Development Team

13:25 Lunch

14:10 Strategic Future Karen Reid, Chief Executive

14:30 Executive Team Q&A Karen Reid and Executive Team Colleagues

15:00 NES Stars Tracey Ashworth-Davies, Director of Workforce and Deputy Chief Executive, NHS Education for Scotland

15:50 Closing Remarks Douglas Hutchens, Vice Chair Board, NHS Education for Scotland

15:55 Close