Online breakout rooms

- You will be automatically sent to a breakout room and brought back into the main meeting when time is up

- There is a 10 second warning before you come back

- You will be able to use chat to communicate

Troubleshooting tips

- Don't panic if you get stuck in a breakout room with nobody else…..

- Wait a minute to be sure that you are alone and there is not an electronic delay

- Use the red leave button if you are still alone, this will end your meeting totally

- Re-join the whole event session using your original event meeting link

- If you continue to have issues contact events@nes.scot.nhs.uk

Breakout room access may differ depending on your device
